SOUTHEASTERN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Spring 2012

MASTER OF DIVINITY

TAMPA BAY EXTENSION CENTER

NOVEMBER 16, 2011

The traditional Master of Divinity program is designed to prepare pastors, missionaries, and other Christian workers for a life of effective kingdom service. The ministry track supports both academic and practical ministry interests. The program prepares students for Christian service by enabling them to gain a basic understanding of Scripture, Christian history, theology and ministry skills within the Christian worldview.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the Master of Divinity program is limited to persons holding a baccalaureate degree or its equivalent who also meet all other admission requirements. Individual track concentrations may have additional requirements as noted.

While a B.A. in Religion or biblical studies may allow students to qualify for Advanced Standing, it is not a requirement for enrolling in the Master of Divinity program of the Seminary.

Degree Requirements

The Master of Divinity degree (90 hours) is the basic seminary degree for pastoral ministry offering a broad and strong foundation of training for ministry. Sixty hours may be completed at the Tampa Extension through the courses and on-line studies. The M.Div. requires a minimum of 24 hours on campus

(These on-campus hours can be completed in courses offered in J-terms, Wake Forest Hybrids, and short summer sessions; 12 of these required hours may be completed as supervised field ministry or mission trips). Up to 42 hours of the M.Div. may be taken online. Students may earn up to 24 hours through online classes. The degree may be completed without moving to North Carolina.
